Can you colour in this map where do you think Afghanistan is?

Why do you think Malala was not allowed to go to school?

Do you think Education is important?

Why do you think girls in that area are not allowed to go to school?

Look at this picture about children's rights. Do you think children have the same rights in the entire planet? Why?

Besides of rights, children also have their own responsibilities. Look at the chart below and decide whether these actions are a right or a responsibility: obey rules, shelter, respect others, food, go to school, work hard, homework, to be dressed.
